Marta Bucholc (1978) is currently a professor of sociology at Käte-Hamburger-Kolleg “Law as Culture” of the University of Bonn. She obtained her habilitation (2014) and her Ph. D. (2006) in sociology at the University of Warsaw, where she has worked ever since. She graduated in sociology, philosophy and law at the University of Warsaw. Her research focuses on history of social theory, sociology of law and sociology of knowledge, and the major portion of it is dedicated to Norbert Elias and to stimulating the reception of Eliasian sociology in Poland. Her books addressing various aspects of Elias’s sociology include Pięty wymiar. Kulturowa socjologia wiedzy Norberta Eliasa (2016, in Polish), Global Community of Self-Defense. Norbert Elias on Normativity, Culture and Involvement (2015),¹ and Samotność długodystansowca. Na obrzeżach socjologii Norberta Eliasa (2013, in Polish).² She is also the author of the first historical monograph of Polish sociology (Sociology in Poland: To Be Continued? (2016)). She translated into Polish several books from English, German and French.

Marta Bucholc edited and prefaced the first full Polish translation of Norbert Elias’s On the Process of Civilisation (O procesie cywilizacji, 2011). She also edited and prefaced the Polish translation of An Essay on Time (Esej o czasie, 2018) as well as translated a few minor works of Norbert Elias from English and German. She co-organized conference sessions and held talks on Eliasian sociology in the congresses of Polish Sociological Association, European Sociological Association and International Sociological Association. Full bibliography of her works related to Elias’s theory can be consulted below: Currently, her main focus is the application of Elias’s theory to collective memory, memory politics and political developments after 2015, which she covered in the following recent publications:

Schengen and the Rosary. Catholic religion and the postcolonial syndrome in Polish national habitus, Historische Sozialforschung/Historical Social Research 2019 (forthcoming).

Commemorative Lawmaking: Memory Frames of the Democratic Backsliding in Poland After 2015, Hague Journal on the Rule Law (2019) 11:85-110, DOI 10.1007/s40803-018-0080-7

Gewaltenteilung ausgehebelt. Der Umbau der polnischen Justiz 2017, Osteuropa 3-5/2018: 7–18. (with Maciej Komornik)

Anachronistische Wahrnehmungen. Zur Rolle der Erinnerung in polnischen Politik. Aus Politik und Zeitgeschichte 10-11/2018: 72-107.
